This song uses sign language which is a bit like actions, and it's fun to sing! 'There's a spider on the floor'… https://youtu.be/7kdT8dKTRQA

KEY STAGE 1

This week is National Insect Week. Here is a fun song to warm up with; 'I know an old lady who swallowed a fly' https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/school-radio/nursery-rhymes-i-know-an-old-lady-who-swallowed-a-fly/znwgscw

Learn the song, 'Bee Bop'; this clip teaches you the first verse and chorus – you can choose either to sing along with Group 1 or just 'buzz' with Group 2… https://youtu.be/qhhlDFRA8HM

Now you can join in with the dance and sing along with the other verses. https://youtu.be/nXjM_XTgrvY

Here is a famous piece of music for you to listen to: 'The Flight of the Bumblebee' by Rimski Korsakov

KEY STAGE 2

This week is National Insect Week.

Here's a song for you to sing along to: 'If I were a minibeast'

Which instrument is playing the main tune? How would you describe the tempo (speed) of the music? You can find out more about tempo here: https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zcbkcj6/articles/z3yfng8
