Dear Staff, Trustees and Volunteers

The categories of school workforce information that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, address)
- Special categories of data including characteristics information (such as gender, age, ethnic group)
- Contract information (such as start dates, hours worked, post, roles and salary information)
- Work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons)
- Qualifications (and, where relevant, subjects taught)
- References
- Occupational Health Reports
- DBS Checks
- Proof of Identification

Why We Collect and Use This Information

We use school workforce data:

- So that the school can carry out its official function
- To create a comprehensive picture of the school workforce and how it is deployed
- To inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- To enable individuals to be paid
- To fulfil a contract with a member of staff
- To comply with a legal obligations (e.g. through HMRC)
- To ensure the vital interest of members of staff are protected, (e.g. by making Occupational Health referrals)
- So that the school can perform a public interest (e.g. ensuring all pupils are taught by suitably qualified individuals)

Collecting This Information

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain school workforce information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing This Information

We hold school workforce data for up to six years, in line with the Information and Records Management Society Retention Guidelines.

Who We Share this information with

We routinely share this information with:

- Our Local Authority
- The Department for Education (DfE)
- Occupational Health
- Prospective Employers (with consent)

Why We Share School Workforce Information

We do not share information about workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Local Authority

We are required to share information about our workforce members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Department for Education (DfE)

We share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins workforce policy monitoring, evaluation, and links to school funding / expenditure and the assessment of educational attainment.

Data Collection Requirements

The DfE collects and processes personal data relating to those employed by schools (including Multi Academy Trusts) and local authorities that work in state funded schools (including all maintained schools, all academies and free schools and all special schools including Pupil Referral Units and Alternative Provision). All state funded schools are required to make a census submission because it is a statutory return under sections 113 and 114 of the Education Act 2005

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The department may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- Conducting research or analysis
- Producing statistics
- Providing information, advice or guidance

The department has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether DfE releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- Who is requesting the data
- The purpose for which it is required
- The level and sensitivity of data requested; and
- The arrangements in place to securely store and handle the data

To be granted access to school workforce information, organisations must comply with its strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

The majority of school workforce information collection is mandatory, for the following reasons:

- Consent: The individual has given clear consent for you to process their personal data for a specific purpose
- Contract: The processing is necessary for a contract you have with the individual, or because they have asked you to take specific steps before entering into a contract.
- Legal Obligation: The processing is necessary for you to comply with the law (not including contractual obligations).
- Vital interests: The processing is necessary to protect someone's life.
- Public Task: The processing is necessary for you to perform a task in the public interest or for your official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law.
- Legitimate Interests: The processing is necessary for your legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party unless there is a good reason to protect the individual's personal data which overrides those legitimate interests. (This cannot apply if you are a public authority processing data to perform your official tasks.)
- Special Category Data: GDPR identifies that some information is particularly sensitive and therefore needs extra protection:

- Racial or ethnic origin
- Political opinions
- Religious or philosophical beliefs
- Trade union membership Health
- Sexual life or orientation
- Genetic data (e.g. blood samples DNA)
- Biometric data to identify an individual (e.g. finger-prints, iris recognition)
- Financial information

Special Category Conditions Article 9 of sets out the special category conditions. If you are processing special category data you need to meet a special category condition in addition to the legal basis identified above:

- The data subject has given explicit consent
- Necessary to protect the vital interests where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- The data has been made publically available by the data subject
- Necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupational medicine, for example the assessment of the working capacity of an employee
- Required for exercising rights in the field of employment and social security or social protection
- Processing is carried out by a foundation or not-for-profit body in the course of its legitimate activities
- Necessary to process legal claims
- Necessary for archiving statistical or historical research which is in the public interest
- Necessary for reasons of substantial public interest on the basis of UK law which shall be proportionate to the aim pursued

Data Relating to Criminal Convictions or Offences: Under GDPR information relating to criminal convictions (includes all DBS checks even if they show no convictions/offences) can only be processed process if you are doing so in an official capacity or have specific legal authorisation to do so.

(Please note that Section 3 of the Data Protection Bill sets out specific data protection principles to be considered when processing personal data for law enforcement purposes. Therefore you may need to refresh your Privacy Notices at such time as the Bill is passed and becomes UK law).
