

YEAR 6 CURRICULUM PLANNER

Communication, Language and Literacy

READING

- The Spook's Apprentice by Joseph Delaney
- The Highwayman by Alfred Noyes
- The Three Brothers by JK Rowling

WRITING TO ENTERTAIN

- Work examining different fiction genres, including: -
 - Mystery and Adventure
 - Historical
 - Science Fiction
- Performance Poetry – Albert and the Lion

WRITING TO INFORM

- Persuasive Letters and Reports
- Arguments Texts

Mathematics

- Addition and subtraction of decimal numbers
- 7-digit numbers
- Decimal place value
- Multiplying and dividing (by 10, 100 & 1,000)
- Rounding numbers
- Positive and negative numbers
- Fractions and percentages
- Algebra
- Arithmetic including decimals (+-x÷)
- Fractions of amounts
- Co-ordinates
- Addition and subtraction of fractions
- Multiplying and dividing fractions
- Ratio & proportion
- Statistics: bar/line/pie
- Reading scales and measure problems
- Arithmetic including decimals (+-x÷)

Curriculum Enrichment

- Kings Science Visit (The Heart)
- A Victorian Crime and Punishment Workshop
- World Book Day
- Children's Mental Health Awareness Week
- Pendle Sculpture Trail
- Science Week

Expressive Arts and Design

D.T.

- Controllable vehicles (Asian tuk-tuks)

ART

- Painting linked to Faith and Ethics (Creation)
- Artists: -
 - Noreen Schumann, Jackie Olenick, Jacob Mezrahi

MUSIC

- Steel Pans/Samba

YEAR 6 - SPRING TERM

How have people enforced the law and punished criminals?
Asia – A self-study

Spanish

- iDescubrimos! (Unit 13)
 - Personal Description
 - Describing parts of the head and face
 - Describing the bodies of strange animals

RSE/PSHE

- Dreams and Goals
- Healthy Me

Faith and Ethics

- Creation and science: conflicting or complimentary?
- What difference does the resurrection make to Christians?

Understanding the World

HISTORY

Modern Day Crimes and Punishments

- During our Crime and Punishment topic, we will find out:
 - Who was Robert Peel?
 - Who was Edith Smith?
 - Who was Dick Turpin?
 - What were Victorian and Tudor punishments?
 - Who were the Pendle Witches?
 - How are laws made?
 - How were punishments enforced?
 - Do we think the punishments are fair?

GEOGRAPHY

The children will complete a self-led unit about one country in Asia, including learning about: -

- Asian countries
- Asian climate/land use
- Weather
- Cultures
- Traditions
- Economy
- Life of a child

To end the unit, the children will host a 'Tour of Asia' for parents.

Science

- Light and Shade
- The heart and the human body

Physical Development

- Send and Receive
- Athletics

Computing

- Excel/Spreadsheets (Digital Literacy)
- Minecraft