On 8th May 2020 it will be 75 years since the guns fell silent at the end of the war in Europe.
 'Take You Home' is a song written and composed by Laura Wright to commemorate VE Day.
 Did you know... Laura comes from Atherton near Bolton and that she has written songs for some very famous people?

How did the song make you feel? The words of the song are very special, maybe you could draw your own picture to illustrate the song?
 Some of you may have learned other songs from World War I and II; you might recognise some here:

 Did you see the clip about Glen Miller and his orchestra?
 'Hey Mr Miller' is a fun song; it is also signed. Get your family to join in and enjoy!

 Can you imagine what it was like for children in the war? Write about your feelings... maybe a letter or a poem... <https://youtu.be/BGjYmVLxo84>

Take You Home
Chorus:
 There's music in your ears, wherever you shall go,
 The crashing of the waves, on the seashore,
 There's music in your ears, wherever you shall go,
 Listen to the beat of your heart, it'll take you home,
 Home, home.

All around the world, hear the clashing of the drums,
 Ready for the show, the trumpets they become
 Alive in the moment, captured in a song,
 Oh, what a time to be alive, everybody we are one.
 If you're somebody who loves, then you're somebody my friend,
 Oh, won't you sing it again?

Chorus...It'll take you home, home, home.
