Hi Everybody - are you ready to make music?
 Let's sing our hello song - Let's hold hands - you'll find it here along with lots of other videos.

There are a lot of things changing at the minute and that makes us feel differently. Here's a song from Sesame Street with Dave Matthews and Grover which might help you think about your feelings.

Let's sing one of our favourites - "We're all riding on a Train" from Playsongs - can you make a shaker or find something you like the sound of to tap along? What happens to the music? Could you make your sounds get faster and slower?

Barefoot Books UK has a Singalongs - Magic Train Ride

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gIdBrE4mPLI>

There are lots of changes on the Magic Train Ride - can you remember them all? Can you think about the sorts of changes that have happened to you? Can you think about changes that might be about to happen?

Miss Molly is singing a song about lots of different feelings in this little song <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-J7HcVLsCrY>
 Did you recognise any of these feelings? Can you make the faces and maybe actions to match the feelings in the song.

Can you remember times when you have felt some of those feelings? Think about your changes? Are you going on a journey? Are you going to start school? Are you going to a different class? Can you think about how you might feel? Maybe you could draw a picture to help you remember that it will be ok however you feel.

Please don't forget to share your ideas.
